

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Mr. Epler offered the following amendment :

The county court of St. Clair county shall, annually, on the first Tuesday of its first regular term each year, pay or cause to be paid to the treasurer of the city of East St. Louis, in said county, for the use of said city, to be expended by said city in keeping in repair the street or streets leading to said ferry, eighty-five per cent. of the net proceeds realized by said county from said ferry for the preceding year.

The net income from the operation of said ferry by said county, or, in case of its being leased by the county, as authorized by this act, then the gross amount of hire due said county, or its county court, on said lease, shall be deemed gross proceeds, and the remainder thereof, after deducting a sum equal to ten per cent. on the amount invested by said county in said ferry, shall be deemed the annual net proceeds within the meaning of this act.

The franchise granted by this act, and the ferry landing and other privileges, rights and property acquired under it, and appertaining thereto, shall not be leased by said county court, except upon condition that the lessee will, at all reasonable times while the river is navigable opposite said landing, afford ready, adequate and convenient ferry facilities to passengers and vehicles, other than those engaged in transferring freight and persons to and from the railroad depots at East St. Louis, and except only to the highest bidder therefor—not less than thirty days notice of the letting thereof having first been published, by authority of said court, in at least two newspapers published in said county—one of which being printed in East St. Louis—and in two of the principal newspapers of the city of St. Louis, Missouri.

The ferry franchise created by this act is granted upon this condition: that the city of East St. Louis may at any time acquire the same, together with all rights, privileges and appurtenances thereto and to said county belonging, upon the payment to the county court of said county the sum invested therein by said county; and upon such payment, or the tender of payment thereof, said county court shall assign, transfer and convey, or cause to be assigned, transferred and conveyed, to the city of East St. Louis, said franchise, rights, privileges and appurtenances, and the lease thereof, if any there be; whereupon said city shall hold and enjoy the same as if originally granted to said city, instead of to the county of St. Clair.

Failure on the part of said county, within — months from the approval of this act by the Governor of the State, to establish or cause to be established, and thereafter to maintain or cause to be maintained, as prescribed in this act, the additional ferry accommodations contemplated by and authorized under this act, shall invalidate this act, and shall make void every right and privilege, grant and franchise thereby created.

A message from the Governor, by E. B. Harlan, Private Secretary:

Mr. Speaker: I am directed by the Governor to lay before the Senate a written communication, with inclosures:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 5, 1869.)

To the Honorable Speaker of the Senate:

I have the honor to communicate to both branches of the General Assembly a copy of the resolution of Congress, proposing to the Legislatures of the several States a Fifteenth Article to the Constitution of the United States.

I deem it unnecessary, while performing this act of official duty, to do more than express my own earnest hope that the General Assembly will at once give voice to the ardent wishes of the people, in expressing the concurrence of the State of Illinois in this crowning act of justice and statemanship. Illinois owes much of its prosperity and greatness to the ordinance of 1787, which, in addition to the exclusion of slavery from the territory northwest of the Ohio, took its place in history by the side of the Declaration of Independence as the protest of Mr. Jefferson, and his contemporary patriots, against human slavery; and the State which led in the political contest of 1860, which gave to freedom its first victory, and which was the home and now lovingly shelters in her bosom all that was mortal of the Great Martyr, will not hesitate a moment to assent to this measure of justice, which closes the greatest and noblest struggle the history of the world has known, and will make "Liberty and Union one and inseparable, now and forever."

JOHN M. PALMER.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

To all to whom these presents shall come—greeting :

I certify that annexed is a true copy of a concurrent resolution of Congress entitled "A resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States," the original of which resolution, received to-day, is on file in this Department.

In testimony whereof, I, WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State of the United States, have hereto subscribed my name, and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-seventh day of February, A. D. 1869, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-third.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

[Concurrent Resolution received at Department of State, February 27, 1869.]

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of both houses concurring), That the following Article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

GEO. C. GORHAM,
Secretary of Senate, U. S.

Mr. Munn offered the following:

WHEREAS the Congress of the United States has proposed the following, as the XVth Amendment to the Federal Constitution, viz:

Mr. Speaker: I am directed by the Governor to return to the Senate, in which it originated, Senate bill, No. 395, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of New Boston,' approved Feb. 21, 1859," together with his objections to the same becoming a law:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 10, 1869.)

To the Honorable Speaker of the Senate:

Senate bill 395—"An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of New Boston,' approved Feb. 21, 1859"—is herewith returned to the Senate, with my objections to its becoming a law. The bill, by its first section, defines an extensive boundary for the city of New Boston, comprehending farms and lands, and then exempts and excepts all lands within the city limits used for farming purposes, and the necessary farm buildings thereon, until the same are laid out in lots or blocks of five acres or less, from all city or corporation taxes. It is not necessary to deny that the General Assembly has the power to extend the limits of cities and towns, to include contiguous farms and out-lands; but if such lands are included within corporate limits they must be subjected to an uniform tax, for corporate purposes, with the other property in said cities and towns.

The fifth section of the ninth article of the constitution is in the following words: "The corporate authorities of counties, townships, school districts, cities, towns and villages may be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes—such taxes to be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body imposing the same. And the General Assembly shall require that all the property within the limits of municipal corporations belonging to individuals shall be taxed for the payment of debts contracted under authority of law."

All the property within the limits of municipal corporations is alike subject to an uniform tax; and any attempt to exempt the farm lands so mentioned in the bill is merely void. And if there was no constitutional difficulty, such an exemption would be unjust to the taxpayers of the city. It would violate sound principles to permit the persons who reside upon and own the lands exempted from taxation to vote burdens upon others to which they would not be bound to contribute; and if it be said that farm lands ought not to be subjected to taxation for corporate purposes, the answer is, that when property is within the legal limits of a city it is a part of the city, and must bear its proportion of the burdens of its government.

JOHN M. PALMER

Senate bill, No. 395, for "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the city of New Boston,' approved Feb. 21, 1859," was taken up.

And the question being, "Shall this bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

A message from the Governor, by E. B. Harlan, Private Secretary :

Mr. Speaker : I am directed by the Governor to return to the Senate the following Senate bills, together with his objections to their becoming laws :

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869.

To the Speaker of the Senate :

I return, without my signature, the following bills to the Senate :

No. 1. Senate bill No. 573, a bill for "An act to incorporate the town of Bethalto, Madison county."

No. 2. Senate bill No. 410, a bill for "An act to incorporate the city of Aledo."

No. 3. Senate bill No. 386, a bill for "An act to incorporate the town of Venice, in the county of Madison."

I return these bills together, as the objections to each are that they exempt a part of the property within the corporations from municipal taxation.

The twelfth section of the bill for "An act to incorporate the town of Bethalto, Madison county," contains this language: "The President and board of trustees of said town of Bethalto are hereby authorised and required to exempt from any tax, except road labor, all lands and real estate, within the limits aforesaid, which are used exclusively for agricultural purposes, until said lands are laid off into town lots."

The proviso to the second section of the bill for "An act to incorporate the city of Aledo," is as follows: "Provided, that all lands lying and being within the corporate limits of said city, the same being in fields containing five or more acres, and the same never having been laid off into lots or blocks, and upon which no buildings are situated, and unoccupied, shall, until the same either become occupied or buildings be erected thereon, or laid off in lots or blocks, be exempt from all corporate taxes."

The twelfth section of the bill for "An act to incorporate the town of Venice, in the county of Madison," provides, "that said president and trustees shall not levy and collect any tax on land used for farming purposes, nor upon any lands lying west of and parallel to and one hundred and fifty feet distant from the main street of said town; but when any land lying west of said line shall be used for dwelling purposes, or shall be laid out and platted, such portion of the same, so used for dwelling purposes, and so much thereof as shall be hereafter laid out and platted, as aforesaid, shall be liable to be assessed and taxed."

These provisions are conceded, by all who have attended to the subject, to be contrary to the provisions of the constitution.

JOHN M. PALMER.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

The bill for "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society,'" is herewith returned to the Senate, in which it originated, without my signature.

In the communication which I had the honor to address to the Senate, accompanying Senate bill No. 304, to which this is a supplement, I had occasion to state that that bill proposes to incorporate certain persons, by the name and style of the "Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society," with its principal office at Cairo, and with power to establish branch offices in all the counties upon or south of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad; that by the act before referred to the corporation is empowered to take and hold, by purchase or otherwise, such real and personal estate as may be necessary to its objects, though it can not, at any one time, own more than fifty thousand dollars' worth of lands, but may sell and dispose of its lands at pleasure; and the same corporation is authorized to act as agent for the sale or purchase of lands and the payment of taxes, for reasonable compensation, and to loan money to emigrants, and to receive the money and other valuables of emigrants on deposit, and to sell exchange, and to make abstracts of titles to lands lying in any of the counties on or south of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, and to publish maps, plats, statistics and advertisements of any lands or town lots they may have for sale; and that there is not a single provision in that bill which contemplates or proposes one single act of benevolence or charity toward the class of persons for whose ostensible aid the corporation is proposed to be created.

The bill now under consideration supplements the one above referred to, by authorizing the county courts in the several counties not having township organization, and the boards of supervisors in counties having township organization, in all the counties lying upon or south of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, to subscribe to the capital stock of the Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society, in such sum as such county court or board of supervisors may think proper, not exceeding five thousand dollars; and incorporated towns or cities, situated in the counties above mentioned, are also authorized to subscribe to the capital stock of the same incorporation the sum of five thousand dollars; and when any county or city shall have subscribed to the capital stock of this company, it shall be entitled to all the privileges of any individual member, etc.

Under the constitution, "the corporate authorities of counties, townships, school districts, cities, towns and villages, may be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes, and to aid in the discharge of any corporate duty; but I am unable to discover that the corporation known as the "Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society" proposes to do a single act which falls within the sphere of the duties of any county, township, city or town in the State, or that any object contemplated by that act is worthy of public encouragement and support.

The powers of the Southern Illinois Aid Society, as conferred by the act of incorporation, are only such as are useful and convenient for a mere financial business corporation, organized and carried on solely for the gain and profit of its members.

Municipal corporations cannot be stockholders in or members of such corporations, nor have county courts or boards of supervisors of counties, or the authorities of cities and towns, the right, nor can the Legislature confer upon them the power, to tax the property of the people for such purposes.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869.

To the Speaker of the Senate :

I am constrained to return to the Senate, with my objections, Senate bill No. 314, a bill for "An act to incorporate the Union Warehouse and Security Company."

The bill proposes to create a company to engage in mere mercantile business, and confers upon it all necessary corporate powers. The right to prosecute a business in this manner is conceded, and if it were not that the bill, by its seventh section, proposes to confer upon the company commercial powers and rights not now exercised or allowed to others engaged in trade, no objection could be urged; but to change the general law governing trade, for the benefit and advantage of a single corporation, without extending the same to others, is so manifestly unjust as to render any arguments against it superfluous. The seventh section of the bill is as follows: "It shall be lawful for said company to sell, at public auction or private sale, as may be specified in the contract between the parties, all property, of what kind soever, mentioned in or affected by said contract, after ten days shall have elapsed from the time of the maturity of any obligation under said contract or immediately upon the discovery of any fraud, misrepresentation or concealment in regard to the ownership, character or any other matter relating to the property mentioned in or affected by said contracts, and to reimburse itself out of any avails of such sale for the moneys due it, with the interest, storage, costs and charges, and to indemnify itself for any loss it may have sustained by the non-fulfillment of said contract."

It will be observed that this section makes a change in the general law, and gives to this company a power and right not known or employed in the business operations of others; or, if it did exist, no necessity would arise for specifically conferring it upon this company.

I do not mean to insist that a change in the general law, which would give to all persons the rights and privileges sought to be conferred upon this company by this bill, would be improper; but until such a change is made, I cannot consent that the advantages such a change would secure, if any, should be enjoyed by a few, and not by all.

JOHN M. PALMER.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate:

A bill for "An act to incorporate the Sherwood Silver Mining Company of Nevada," proposes to incorporate George A. Wheeler and others, and their associates and successors, by the name expressed in the title of the bill, and to authorize the incorporation thus created to mine and prospect for gold, silver and other metals, ores and minerals, and to locate and secure, for the purpose of development and sale, lodes of gold and silver bearing quartz in the state of Nevada; and, after specifying other corporate powers, proceeds to confer upon these incorporators the additional powers to purchase, hold, sell, mortgage, transfer or convey any real or personal property, and to make, erect or construct any mills, buildings, shafts, tunnels, races, roads, forges, furnaces, dikes, and all other works necessary for carrying on their operations in the state of Nevada, and to hold and enjoy mining rights in that state, without limitation.

To show that the adoption of this bill is unsupported by principle, and that it is dangerous in policy and in example, it is only necessary to say the laws of the State of Illinois, creating incorporations, like all other laws of this State, can have no operation beyond its own territorial boundaries, and that a law of this State which proposes to give to corporations the power to buy and sell property and carry on business in the state of Nevada, is as futile as it is likely to be offensive to that state, which, no doubt, will regard such an attempt as an interference in its internal affairs altogether unwarranted.

Incorporations created by the different states, for their own purposes and in furtherance of their own policy, are, by the comity of others, permitted to acquire property within their limits, as far as may be consistent with the policy of the consenting states; but none of the states are likely to accept or submit to the claims created by this bill. The proper course for these corporators to pursue is to apply to the Legislature of Nevada for the needed corporate powers; and the interest as well as the dignity of the State of Illinois is to decline an interference with the business of other states, and refuse to permit any interference with its own.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869.

To the Speaker of the Senate:

Senate bill, No. 509, for "An act to change the time for the election of school trustees in the county of Will, from the special election in October to the general election in November," is herewith returned.

House bill No. 1254, passed by the present General Assembly, accomplishes by its provisions the main purpose of this bill, in this, that it fixes the election of school trustees at a time when general elections are held. It is supposed that this bill was passed without a knowledge of the fact that what was proposed by it for a special purpose was made general by the House bill adverted to. The advantage sought by it, therefore, having been assured, not only to the county of Will, but to every county in the State, this bill is unnecessary, and is therefore returned without my signature.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, ILL. April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

A bill for "An act to fund and provide for paying the railroad debts of counties, townships, cities and towns," which originated in the Senate, has received from me the most careful consideration, and I regret to find myself unable to concur with the General Assembly in the opinion that it should become a law.

It will be discovered, upon a careful examination of the bill, that it contemplates first that whenever any county, township, city or town has heretofore, upon a vote of the legal voters of such county, township, city or town, as contemplated in the seventh section of the bill, contracted any "bond debt" in aid of the construction of any one or more railroads, which is or are already completed near to, into or through such county, township, city or town, it shall be lawful for the holders of any of the bonds of such county, township, city or town, issued in aid of the construction of such road, to cause the same to be registered in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts, and after such registry it is made the duty of the State Treasurer to set apart in the Treasury, for the use of such county, township, city or town—

First. All the proceeds of all the taxes assessed upon the said railroad or railroads, and all their property, in such county, township, city or town, for any purpose whatever, general or local, except the two-mill tax and the State tax levied for the use of schools.

Second. All the state taxes paid into the State Treasury on the increased valuation of the taxable property of said county, township, city or town over and above the assessed value of the taxable property of such county, township, city or town, made for the year 1868.

Without noticing the details of the bill intended to provide the means for ascertaining the amounts of money arising from the before-mentioned sources, it further directs that when the bonds of any county, township, city or town shall be so registered, the Auditor shall annually ascertain the amount of interest due upon such registered bonds, and shall, from the amount so ascertained to be due, deduct the amounts in the State Treasury to the credit of the county, township, city or town liable on such bonds, arising from the excess of the valuation of its taxable property over the valuation of 1868, and from the taxes arising from the property of the railroad company in aid of which said bonds were given, situated in the county, township, city or town, and shall then proceed, upon the basis of the current assessment of the property in such county, township, city or town, to compute the rate per centum that will be required to make the sum, in addition to the sums reserved to pay the interest due on said bonds, to certify the rate required to the proper officer of the county, township, city or town, who is required to add the required per centum to that required to be collected for State purposes, and when collected the same shall be paid into the State Treasury.

And it is also provided in the bill that upon the completion of any railroad, within ten years from and after the passage of the act, which shall run near to, into or through any county, township, city or town, so that cars shall have run thereon, the holders of any bonds issued in aid of such railroad, under the conditions mentioned in the seventh section of the act, may cause the same to be registered with the Auditor, and after such registry the State Treasurer shall proceed to place to the credit of the county, township, city or town, so having incurred said debt, the State taxes collected and paid into the State Treasury on the increased valuation of the taxable property of said county, township, city or town, as shown by the annual assessment roll, over the year 1868—excepting as before the two mill tax and the state tax levied for school purposes, and also all the taxes levied and collected upon all the property of the railroad company in aid of which such bonds were issued, situated in such county, township, city or town, for all purposes, state, county and local, except the two-mill tax and school tax; and the Auditor is required, as before, after deducting the proceeds of the taxes of said county, township, city or town, upon such excess of valuation over that of 1868, and upon the property of the railroad company in aid of which such bonds were issued, to order the collection from all the taxable property of the county, township, city or town of the additional sum required to pay the interest on said bonds.

It seems to be contemplated by the act that the proceeds of the taxes upon the excess of the property of such counties, townships, cities or towns, over and above the valuation of 1868, and the proceeds of the taxes upon the property of the railroads, in aid of which such bonds were issued, shall, from the time such bonds are registered, "be deemed as pledged and appropriated for the payment of the principal and interest of the registered bonds herein provided for, until fully satisfied;" but that, for the term of eight years from and after the passage of the act, the taxes before provided for shall be applied to the payment of the interest on such bonds alone, but that for and during the remaining years that such bonds shall remain unpaid, the funds arising from taxation upon the property of the railroad companies shall be applied to the payment of the principal or the purchase of such bonds in open market, but the proceeds of the excess of valuation over that of the year 1868, and of the special tax required to be collected by the act, shall be collected and annually applied to the payment of the interest.

The bill, as will then be seen, provides for the payment of the principal and interest of the registered bonds issued by counties, townships, cities and towns in aid of the construction of railroads, from three distinct and independent sources :

1st. From the amount of taxes realized upon the excess of the valuation of the property of such county, township, city or town, for the year the tax is required, over the valuation of the property of the same county, township, city or town for the year 1868, and the rate of taxation upon this excess will always be that imposed upon all the property of the State for all State purposes.

2d. From the amount of all taxes for all purposes, general and local, assessed upon the property of the railroad corporation aided by the issuance of the bonds.

3d. From an additional special per centum levied, with and in addition to all other taxes, upon all the property of such counties, townships, cities or towns, by the Auditor—acting under the fourth section of the bill.

The State is made the custodian of the funds derived from these various sources, but the tax and funds so collected shall be deemed pledged and appropriated to the payment of the interest and principal of the registered bonds herein provided for, until fully satisfied.

It is readily confessed that, from the manner in which the bill is drawn, it may be argued, with some show of reason, that the assessment, collection and appropriation of the moneys derived from all or some of these sources of taxation are limited to ten years from and after the registry of the bonds.

The first section of the bill requires the State Treasurer, for the term of ten years, to place the proceeds of the excess of valuation of property in counties, townships, cities and towns, for each year, over the valuation of 1868, to the credit of the proper counties, townships, cities and towns; but while all the provisions of the bill limiting the collection and appropriation of this excess to ten years are vague and uncertain, the absolute pledge and appropriation of all funds authorized to be realized by the act until the principal and interest of the bonds are fully paid, is clear and precise.

This bill then contemplates in its direct provisions, however carefully or artfully expressed, the assumption by the State of the obligation: first, to pay the interest and afterwards the principal of all the railroad debts of counties, townships, cities and towns that are now contracted in aid of railroads already completed, and also to pay the principal and then the interest upon all the bonds of counties, townships, cities and towns, hereafter to be contracted, in aid of any railroad which shall be completed within ten years from the passage of the act; and in its ultimate indirect consequences invites counties, townships, cities and towns to engage in railroad enterprises upon their own credit, with the delusive hope of ultimately succeeding in charging the debts they may contract upon the State Treasury.

Happily, I think, the constitution of the State, not only in its express provision, but in its broad and comprehensive spirit, saves the State from the mischief that would certainly follow the adoption of this measure.

The General Assembly, by the second section of the ninth article of the constitution, is authorized to provide for levying a tax by valuation, so that every person and corporation shall pay a tax in proportion to the value of his or her property.

The principle of taxation fixed by the constitution is that all taxes shall be uniform throughout the State, so that every person shall be required to contribute his just share to every public burden. It follows from this proposition that it is not within the constitutional power of the General Assembly to relieve any portion of the people of the State from the payment of their share of the money required to carry on the common government, nor to release any property within the territory of any municipal corporation from taxation to pay the corporate debts, or to impose upon any property within the State a greater tax than is imposed upon all other property, alike subject to taxation.

It is not denied but that the General Assembly may appropriate the public money for many local objects; and the Supreme Court of the State, in a recent opinion, which is entitled to great respect, has given a practical interpretation to this power by holding that the Legislature, under its power to appropriate money, may properly direct the sum raised in a particular district, to be collected and directly applied to objects local to that district.

Under the provisions of this bill, however, property of a particular description, as that of railroad incorporations, in the counties, townships, cities and towns that have or may issue bonds in aid of their construction, is actually relieved from all taxation for general state purposes, and, at the same time, while the property of all such counties, townships, cities and towns have contracted railroad debts, under the provisions of this act, is taxed at a lower and different rate than the property in counties that owe no railroad debt.

The only attempt that has been made to reconcile these provisions of the bill with the requirements of the constitution assumes that, while it is true that the bill imposes a greater rate of taxation for general state purposes, upon counties, townships, cities and towns that have no railroad debts, than upon the counties, townships, cities and towns provided for by the bill, still, such latter counties, townships, cities and towns do pay an equal amount of taxes for the payment of the principal and interest of their railroad debts.

This does not meet the objection; for the principles of taxation established by the constitution require that all the property of the State, and of its local municipal divisions, shall be made to bear a fair share of the burden of taxes imposed by the State, and the proper county or other local division.

As an illustration of the proposition I am aiming to enforce, I may add that no one will argue that it is within the constitutional power of the General Assembly to relieve any county, township, city or town from the payment of all taxes, state, county and local, or to require that any one or more of the counties of the State, less than the whole number, should be required to pay all the expenses of the State government, or to pay the local expenses of all or any of the counties of the State.

Applying these views to the bill under consideration, it will be observed that this bill releases all the property of certain railroad companies from State taxation, except the two mill tax and the State tax, and from all county and local taxation except for a single purpose, but imposes a tax upon the property of such railroad companies equal in the aggregate to all the taxes imposed upon other property in the same locality for a single purpose, and that it releases also the excess of the valuation of property in certain counties, townships, cities and towns from all taxation for all general state, county and municipal objects, and imposes a tax equal to the aggregate of all other taxes for a single local object. This presents a case of unequal taxation, which is not cured by imposing a local tax equal to that paid for general purposes by less favored counties,

The principle of equality of taxation is valuable—so important to the safety and protection of the property of the people that it would be a matter of profound regret to be compelled to confess that this bill furnishes an example of its successful evasion.

But there is another point of view, in which this bill is especially alarming.

Many of the counties, townships, cities and towns in the State have contracted large debts for corporate purposes, and they are constantly tempted, by the pressure of taxation, to desire to relieve themselves, and at the same time the holders of corporate debts are ingenious in the invention of devices to improve the value of their securities.

The latter class desire to secure the assumption of corporate debts by the whole State, and this bill, with its doubtful, equivocal provisions, is a long step in that direction, and if this bill is to be defended upon the ground that it does not authorize unequal, and for that reason unconstitutional, taxation, but that it is an appropriation of the public money to public objects, more than one hundred counties, townships, cities and towns have already, in fact, appropriated, and as many more are authorized to contract debts, to the payment of which, in the language of the bill, "the funds provided are pledged and appropriated."

The General Assembly are the constitutional guardians of the public treasury, and cannot, without incurring a fearful responsibility, open it to all the counties, townships, cities and towns of the State, to be drawn upon by their separate and independent action, each tempted and stimulated, by the delusive expectations this bill is so well calculated to excite, to contract debts with reckless imprudence, relying upon the expectation that other counties, townships, cities and towns will pay a large share of the common expenses and leave them to devote their means to their own private objects.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

The following bills, which originated in the Senate, are herewith returned without my approval, for reasons stated after the title of each.

Senate bill No. 652, "An act in relation to the Hamilton, Lacon and Eastern Railroad Company, and the local taxes thereon, in the counties of Livingston, LaSalle and Marshall."

This bill provides that all the property, real and personal, belonging to the corporation named in the title, shall be taxed in the same proportion as other property in the counties, towns, cities, townships and districts through which said road may pass; and all taxes so levied, except State taxes, shall be paid by the said railroad company on the entire line of road, direct to the counties, cities, towns and townships which shall have subscribed to the capital stock of said company, in proportion to the amount they may have severally subscribed.

It is not competent, in my opinion, for the General Assembly to apply the local taxes, levied by the authority of counties and other municipal corporations upon property within their corporate limits, to the uses of other counties and corporations. No principle is plainer and better settled than that taxes cannot be levied upon the property of one local corporation for the benefit of another.

Senate bill 485, "An act to enable township 17, range 10 west, to subscribe to the capital stock of the Peoria, Pekin, and Jacksonville Railroad Company."

The object of this bill is to authorize the inhabitants of a Congressional township, in a county not under township organization, to subscribe to the capital stock of the corporation named in the title of the bill. This township has no municipal organization—no official machinery by which it can do the act proposed. By itself, it has no powers and owes no duties of a municipal character; and, with respect to public enterprises like this, its inhabitants are mere private persons, and cannot be compelled to take stock in a railway company—cannot, separated from the county, make contracts or be subjected to taxation; nor can a majority bind the minority, or charge their property, for railroad purposes.

Senate bill No. 479, a bill for "An act to incorporate the Peninsula Real Estate and Loan Company."

This corporation is created to buy and sell lands and speculate generally.

Senate bill No. 219, "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act relating to county and city debts, and to provide for the payment thereof, by taxation, in such counties and cities,' approved February 13, 1865."

This bill is of so much importance, being one of a class having for their ultimate object to fix upon the State the responsibility of providing for the payment of local debts, that it deserves the attentive reconsideration of the General Assembly. I return it, that the responsibility of such a radical change in the relation of the State to the indebtedness of counties and cities may be assumed by the representatives of the people, if, in their judgment, such a change should be made.

Senate bill No. 391, "An act to incorporate the Fairfield Real Estate and Land Company."

This bill incorporates an association for dealing in lands.

Senate bill No. 162, "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Cairo and St. Louis Railroad Company,' approved February 16, 1865."

Section 3 of this bill proposes to authorize subscriptions, by the trustees of schools in townships in counties not under township organization, to the capital stock of this company. For the reasons given for declining to sign Senate bill No. 285, I withhold my signature from this.

Senate bill No. 594, "An act to amend an act entitled 'an act to incorporate the Pana, Springfield and Northwestern Railroad Company,'" with the objections of the Governor thereto, which are as follows :

The 7th, 8th and 9th sections of this bill authorize subscriptions to the capital stock of this railroad company by the trustees of schools in townships in counties not under township organization. For reasons already given, I decline to approve the bill.

Senate bill No. 361, "An act to incorporate the Hilton Mining and Manufacturing Company."

The powers conferred upon the corporation created by this bill are enormous.

JOHN M. PALMER.

Senate bill, No. 361, for "An act to incorporate the Hilton Mining and Manufacturing Company," being returned to the Senate with the objections of the Governor, his objections being spread at large of record, on reconsideration,

To the Speaker of the Senate:

For reasons hereafter stated, I have not approved and signed a bill for "An act to incorporate the Gilman Mining Company, of Pah Ranagat," which originated in the Senate.

The first section of the bill provides that Marcus D. Gillman and other persons named therein, and their associates and successors, are constituted a body corporate by the name mentioned in the bill, with perpetual succession, for the purpose of mining and prospecting for gold, silver and other metals, ores and minerals; locating and securing, for the purpose of development and sale, lodes of gold and silver bearing quartz in the state of Nevada, with authority to borrow money, purchase, hold, sell, mortgage, transfer or convey any real or personal estate or property; make, erect or construct any mills and buildings, shafts, tunnels, races, roads, forges, furnaces, dykes and other works necessary for carrying on their operations in Nevada; hold and enjoy mining rights and property; mine and work for gold, silver and other metals, and other minerals in Nevada.

I am well satisfied that there is no ground upon which this bill can be supported. State laws creating corporations can only operate, by their own force, within the territorial limits of the state adopting them.

No one would imagine that the legislature of the state of Illinois can regulate the rate of interest or the methods by which property may be transferred in any other state of the United States. And there is as much reason for claiming these powers as to assert the right to create corporations and define the powers they are to exercise in the state of Nevada. This bill creates a body corporate, and attempts to give it power to mine and prospect for gold, silver and other minerals, and of locating and securing for the purpose of development and sale of lodes of gold and silver-bearing quartz in the state of Nevada, and proposes to confer upon it the power to buy and sell land and carry on mining operations in that state, and limits and confines its operations to the state of Nevada.

It would be destructive of the harmony of the states if such power was habitually exercised; and the state of Illinois, by assuming to exercise the legislative powers claimed by this bill, adopts a dangerous doctrine, and invites all the other states to imitate its example.

I am of opinion that the bill is wholly without support, either in principle or policy, and is demanded by no consideration of public or private good, and offers an example of interference by this state in the affairs of a sister state which would, if followed, lead to the most serious consequences.

If the persons named in this bill desire to be incorporated to engage in business in the state of Nevada, it is proper that an application should be made to the legislature of that state.

JOHN M. PALMER.

To the Speaker of the Senate :

A bill for "An act to amend the charter of the town of Golconda," is herewith returned without my signature.

The 3d section of the ninth article of the act incorporating that town, imposes a penalty of one dollar upon each person bound to work upon the streets of the town for each day's neglect to do so, upon notice, and authorizes the arrest and immediate trial of any such person, and judgment for the penalty.

The 4th section of this bill amends the section above referred to, in this particular, that, as an additional penalty, any person who shall refuse to work on the streets or to pay the penalty imposed by the said third section, in lieu thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by indictment in the circuit court of Pope county, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days.

This most severe statute makes the non-payment of the penalty a misdemeanor, wholly irrespective of the question of the ability of the party upon whom it is imposed, or of his intention.

It is contrary to the principles of humanity and justice, and makes no distinction between poverty and inability to pay and willful disregard of duty.

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Halstead :

Mr. Speaker: I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed bills of the following titles, to wit :

House bill, No. 24, for "An act entitled 'an act in relation to the fees of certain county officers in certain counties therein named,' approved Feb. 26, 1867."

House bill, No. 126, for "An act to amend chapter seventy-nine of the Revised Statutes of 1845."

House bill, No. 133, for "An act to incorporate the Silver Mountain Mining Company."

Notwithstanding the veto of the Governor.

In the passage of which I am instructed to ask the concurrence of the Senate.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, {
SPRINGFIELD, April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

I have carefully considered a bill for "An act to incorporate the Illinois Land Company," and, after doing so, am unable to persuade myself that it should become a law.

The bill proposes to incorporate Jesse K. Dubois and others, their associates, successors and assigns, by the name and style of "The Illinois Land Company," with authority to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and hold, any lands or interest in lands, in fee simple or less estate, in the city of East St. Louis, and in the county of St. Clair, with the restriction, however, that the corporation shall have the power to acquire no other lots or tracts of land than such as are now owned by one or more of the corporators named in the bill, and that which is now owned by the heirs of Henry Chauncy.

The capital stock of the company is fixed at $500,000, with liberty to the corporators to increase the same to $1,000,000, and the corporators are empowered to lay off their lands, or any part thereof, into blocks, lots, streets and alleys, and sell, lease and donate any part of the same, and may take mortgages, deeds of trust, or other securities, and may foreclose the same as natural persons are authorized to do, and the corporation is limited to twenty-five years.

It is to be regretted that the practice of the General Assembly does not require of applicants for acts of incorporation like this to furnish a description of the lands owned by them, or which they are permitted to acquire, together with such information as to their situation and value, and a prospectus of their plans for its use or improvement, as may enable the persons charged with the duty of investigation to form a satisfactory opinion as to the policy and propriety of the proposed act.

For the want of such official information the General Assembly and the Executive are left to depend upon accidental means of knowledge as to these important points. Relying upon facts obtained from such sources alone, I may state that the corporators named in this bill own or control about 1,200 acres of land in and around the city of East St. Louis, which is now of great value, and the object they hope to accomplish by this act of incorporation is, to escape the embarrassments that usually attend the personal ownership of lands, and in that way, with greater facility, improve and hold their property until greater profit can be realized than is now possible. In short, the expectation is that by uniting this vast property and placing it under corporate control, and beyond the chance of division by the death of the owners, or by the casualties and accidents of business, it may be made to produce for its proprietors greater profits than it would otherwise do.

It then remains to be settled by those to whom is entrusted the legislation and the guidance of the policy of the State, whether the objects above stated are of such a character as to demand their support and encouragement. It is my opinion that the objects of the corporators, as before stated, so far from having a claim to legislative encouragement, are against public policy, and are subversive of the interests of the people of the State.

Homes are a necessity of the people, and every law which contributes, in any degree, to advance the mere speculative value of lands, and makes the acquisition of homes more difficult, or which tends to keep them locked up from market and improvement and occupancy, is wrong in principle and pernicious in policy. There is no method by which the industrious and energetic can be prevented from acquiring quantities of lands far beyond their own actual wants. Nor is it desirable, in the present state of society, that such acquisitions by individuals should be prohibited, but if such accumulations of property are left to the operation of the laws of descent and distribution, society is often partially compensated for the loss of a good citizen by the necessary division of his estate which follows his death, and frequently the casualties of business and the force of the various motives that influence the conduct of natural persons, produce sales and divisions of large bodies of lands, greatly to the public advantage.

The object of this bill is to prevent the operation of the causes adverted to that now embarrass the ownership of these lands, and that may, if left unchecked, produce early sales and improvements. This corporation, influenced by no motive but the gain and profit of the proprietors of its franchises and property, may, for twenty-five years—a period long enough for a great city to grow up around these lands—defy the ordinary laws of mortality and calmly await the time when the demands of a largely increased population will, without effort on the part of the corporators, give a greatly enhanced value to their property, and may then sell them, or indeed hold them, if the policy which suggests this act shall then influence the General Assembly to extend their powers for another term of years or for an indefinite period.

No public interest will or can be promoted by the passage of this bill, and if the bill, from its own peculiar circumstance, was harmless, it would, if it became a law, remain upon the pages of our statute book a dangerous and unwise precedent of incorporating a company for the mere purpose of acquiring, holding and speculating in lands which lie near and around one of the most promising young cities of the State, with power enough given to the corporators to hinder and embarrass every public improvement which would not contribute to their advantage.

I feel, therefore, that such a measure, if it becomes a law, should be made so after deliberate consideration by the representatives of the people.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

I return to the Senate, in which it originated, Senate bill 273, a bill for “An act to incorporate the Shelbyville Coal Company.”

Having given my reasons for not approving a number of bills of this character, I deem it unnecessary to enter into an argument at length. Suffice it to say, that this bill contemplates the creation of a company for the prosecution of a private enterprise.

Nothing in the bill can possibly direct the mind to any other conclusion. If, then, this be true, it follows that the provision of the sixth section, which authorizes the city of Shelbyville to raise money by a special tax to be levied upon all the real and personal property in said city, to an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars, to invest in the bonds of said company, notwithstanding the people of said city have the right to vote upon the question, is obnoxious to the objection that the legislature has no power under the constitution to authorize the collection of taxes, except for public purposes.

The money which this bill authorizes the city of Shelbyville to raise by a special tax, is not to be used to aid any object of a public nature. The incorporation of the company advances no interest in the general public, nor has it any claim to public support.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, {
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 14, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate:

I am unable to approve or sign Senate bill 304, entitled "An act to incorporate the Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society," and therefore have the honor to return the same to the Senate, with my objection to its becoming a law.

The twenty-third section of the ninth article of the state constitution provide, among other things, that no private or local bill which may be passed by the general assembly shall embrace more than one subject, and that that shall be expressed in the title; and though this bill may not be obnoxious to objection upon the ground of a disregard of the constitutional provision above quoted, yet no one, from reading the name of the corporation proposed in the title of the bill, would be likely to guess correctly its object.

The corporation proposed is to be called "The Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society," and suggests ideas of weary strangers, feeble and poor, on the one hand, and of benevolent men on the other, ministering to their wants, feeding the hungry and clothing the naked; but the bill, after creating an incorporation and enunciating its general powers, and fixing its principal office at Cairo, and conferring upon it the power to establish branch offices in any of the counties upon or south of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, authorizes the Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society to take and hold, by purchase or otherwise, such real or personal estate as may be necessary to carry into effect the object of the act, not exceeding $50,000 in value, at any one time, and to sell and dispose of the same at pleasure; to act as agents for the sale, purchase or payment of taxes of any person owning lands or town lots lying in the territory described in the foregoing sections, and receive therefor such just compensation as may be agreed upon; may loan money to emigrants, and may receive the money or other valuables of emigrants upon deposit; may buy and sell exchange for and with emigrants; to make abstracts of titles to lands and lots within its jurisdiction, and to publish maps, plats, statistics, and advertisements of lands and town lots held by it for sale. After the bill has conferred upon the corporation the powers above stated, it declares that the object of this company shall be to encourage emigration into the southern portion of this state.

It must be manifest that this bill, with the name of the Southern Illinois Emigrant Aid Society, simply organizes a corporation, with its principal office at Cairo, and with power to establish offices in about thirty counties of this state, to speculate in the lands that emigrants will be likely to need, and, by means of a captivating title, win their confidence.

There is not a single provision of this bill that contemplates a single act for the relief or aid to emigrants, and the powers conferred upon the corporators are only such as are required by their interests. Every consideration of public policy forbids the creation of this class of corporations by the state. The lands of southern Illinois are now cheap and accessible, and the good people of that portion of the state welcome industrious emigrants from all climes, and do not need the assistance of an incorporation which will buy lands to be sold again, or to be held until the industry of the present and future population shall improve the country and enhance their value.

JOHN M. PALMER.

The Governor returned Senate bills Nos. 477, 154 and 360, with a message, saying bills of like character had already been signed.

A message from the Governor, by E. B. Harlan, Private Secretary:
Mr. Speaker: I am directed by the Governor to return to the Senate, in which it originated, Senate bill, No. 847, for "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act to amend the charter of the city of Joliet,' approved March 29, 1869, and to perfect and improve the same," together with his objections to the same becoming a law:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 16, 1869. }

To the Speaker of the Senate :

A bill for "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act to amend the charter of the city of Joliet, approved March 29, 1869, and to perfect and improve the same, was laid before me to-day ; and, anxious that no delay on my part shall defeat whatever may be the will of the General Assembly, upon a reconsideration of the bill, I return it to the Senate, in which it originated, without my approval.

The first section in the bill is in the words, "The city of Joliet, in Will county," be and the same is hereby authorized and fully empowered to pledge the credit of the said city by the issuing of bonds, or such other evidences of indebtedness as shall be deemed proper and necessary ; and also to levy and collect necessary taxes as by law is provided for the purpose of aiding and assisting in the creation and erection of manufacturing establishments and improvements in and adjacent to said city, and for liquidating such pledges." And the other sections provide for referring the question of issuing the bonds and levying taxes to the people before debts are contracted, and providing machinery for giving the bill practical effect.

My objection to this bill is that, in my opinion, it has no warrant, either by the letter or the spirit of the constitution.

Taxes, as has been said by eminent authority, are defined to be burdens or charges imposed by the legislative power of a State upon persons or property, to raise money for public purposes, and the power of the General Assembly to impose taxes is limited by the express provisions as well as by the spirit of the constitution.

I will not consume time by attempting to prove that taxes cannot be imposed by legislative authority for merely private objects, for I apprehend that no one will insist that such a power exists, or is possible under our form of government ; but I will assume that in this bill, the General Assembly intend to establish the doctrine that "aiding and assisting in the creation and erection of manufacturing establishments and improvements" is a public object, for which taxes may be assessed and collected by legislative authority.

It will probably be admitted that such has not been the opinion of previous Legislatures, nor has the judicial department in any way given countenance to any such theory. No well considered law, nor do I know that any such law, can be found upon our statute books, while the Supreme Court, in discussing the principle involved in this bill, use the following language: "All will perceive that the building of court houses, jails, poor houses, the opening and keeping in repair of common highways, and the erection and maintenance of bridges, by which they are rendered useful to the people, are county purposes, for which the people may be taxed ; and that the erection of hotels, mercantile, manufacturing, trading and banking houses, though of great importance to the prosperity of the community, are not such purposes as were contemplated by the framers of the constitution. These are properly regarded as matters of individual enterprise, and cannot, in any reasonable or just sense, be regarded as public or county purposes.”

I do not prosecute this subject further; for, while I am profoundly impressed with the conviction that the true rule is asserted in the opinion of the Supreme Court, already quoted, and that the principle embraced in this bill is alike subversive of the correct theories of taxation and the rules of the constitution, and that it will be found in practice injurious and oppressive to the people—subjecting their property to taxation for objects often merely fanciful and speculative—still the responsibility is with the more immediate representatives of the people.

As I interpret the duty of the Governor, under the constitution, if he approve any bill that has passed the Senate and House of Representatives, he is required to sign it: if he does not approve, he is forbidden to do so; and every department of the government is alike under the same solemn obligation to defend the constitution of the State.

I do not approve this bill, and submit it to the General Assembly for their reconsideration.

JOHN M. PALMER.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

To the Speaker of the Senate :

This bill extends the provisions of the act of February 26, 1867, to the county of Jefferson, and is objectionable in that it serves to increase the confusion of the laws now existing with regard to the fees of county officers, and makes a local distinction in the compensation of those officers which ought to be uniform and general.
